

Summer School in Federal Court

The Baton Rouge Chapter of the Federal Bar Association will host "Summer School in Federal Court" on June 18, 2004, at the Middle District Courthouse. This program is designed to give summer clerks and young associates a unique perspective on practice in federal court, with an opportunity to interact with the judges as well as other attorneys and staff in the federal court system. It will include presentations by the district court judges, the magistrates, the bankruptcy judge, the U.S. Attorney's office, and others. The program will run from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. and will end with lunch at the courthouse. The cost is $18 per person.
